Clark remarked on the positive relationship with drug court.

Clark and Selina commented on the positive communication between the jail and Social Services and explained the information/services that are shared with inmates and workers.

Judge Day addressed an area of concern with a serious juvenile offender that requires long-term, secured detention. The court could not order the detention as the county does not have a resolution. Ben Wood responded that the Director of Social Services and himself have already drafted a resolution to address this.

Gary Ranum asked how Social Services defines child abuse and neglect as changes in the definition of discipline have changed in recent years. Clark and Judge Day explained the legal definitions.

Next Presentation, June 2:

- District Attorney and Victim Witness, Ryan Kieler and Denise Dixon
- Circuit Court, Craig R. Day – Will take questions

Presentation, August 4:

- SWCAP, Teresa Burton

Agenda Item: Grant – 2027 Treatment Alternatives and Diversion (TAD)

Treatment Alternatives and Diversion (TAD) is a grant program through the Department of Justice – WI Statute 165.95. The TAD Grant funds treatment courts and diversion programs for counties and tribes.

The goals of TAD-funded programs are:

- Reduce recidivism
- Reduce prison and jail populations
- Reduce prosecution and incarceration rates/costs
- Improve public safety
- Improve lives of participants and their families

2027 is a competitive year – Year 1 of a 5 – year cycle (2027-2031). Per the Department of Justice, there is $10,688,900 available for 2027. All Wisconsin counties and tribes are eligible to apply. Noteworthy: Grant County has applied for and been awarded the TAD Grant since 2014. Public Safety Committee approved moving forward with the grant application 5/13/26; County Board of Supervisors approved moving forward with the grant application 5/19/16.

TAD Grant Application, Category #1 – Implemented programs for existing TAD funded programs. This category is intended to:

- Maintain operations for existing TAD-funded programs
- Have an established CJCC

A two-step application process:

- Step 1 – Mandatory Pre-Application
  - Set funding amount
  - Report on CJCC involvement, team composition, program evaluation and measures and sustainability efforts
  - Emphasis on budget
  - Pre-application due: July 2
- Step 2 – Final Application
  - Narrative based
  - Dates:
    - Posting date: early to mid-September
    - Due date: mid to late October
    - Award: mid to late December
